CONTENTS OF VOLUME 13

Number 1

Editor's comments 1
Guest Editorial
Minerals as fillers—modification to serve modern markets 3
JOYCE B. GRIFFITHS (UK)
Filament winding of thermoplastic matrix composites 9
OLA DICKMAN, KJELL LINDERSSON & LARS SVENSSON (Sweden)
Moulding of thick-section glass-fibre reinforced thermoplastic blocks representing an actuation system support structure 15
P. S. ALLAN, M. J. BEVIS, S. T. HARDWICK, M. MURPHY & D. J. SCULLEY (UK)
Formability of cold-rolled poly(vinyl chloride) 29
Y. W. LEE (Hong Kong)
A model for long-term creep and the effects of physical ageing in poly(butylene terephthalate) 37
G. D. DEAN, B. E. READ & P. E. TOMLINS (UK)
Effect of plasticizer level on the processability, physical and dynamic mechanical properties of black-loaded bromobutyl rubber vulcanizates 47
NABA K. DUTTA & D. K. TRIPATHY (India)
Mathematical model of thermoplastics single-screw extrusion process . . . 55
KRZYSZTOF WILCZYŃSKI (Poland)
Modification of high density polyethylene by reaction with dicumyl peroxide . . 61
TIM BREMNER & ALFRED RUDIN (Canada)
Book Reviews 67
Forthcoming meetings 69

SPECIAL ISSUE: REACTIVE PROCESSING OF POLYMERS

Papers presented at the 5th International Conference on Reactive Processing of Polymers, 7–9 September, 1988, Bradford, UK

Guest Editorial
Reactive processing of polymers 71
P. D. COATES (UK)
Reactions in molten polymers 75
M. LAMBLA, J. DRUZ & F. MAZERES (France)
Crosslinking of LLDPE and VLDPE via graft-polymerized vinyltrimethoxysilane . 81
STEFAN ULTSCH & HANS-GERHARD FRITZ (FRG)
Baydur 110®, a self-releasing, microcellular polyurethane for industrial mouldings . 93
O. GANSTER & U. KNIPP (FRG)
Structure–property relations in poly(urethane-urea)s and polyureas formed by reaction injection moulding: phase separation studies 99
A. J. RYAN, J. L. STANFORD & R. H. STILL (UK)
Engineering plastics formed by reaction injection moulding: high-stiffness and high-strength copolyureas 111
J. L. STANFORD, A. N. WILKINSON, D.-K. LEE & A. J. RYAN (UK)
Mould flows and post-mixhead rheology studies for poly(urethane-urea)s . . 121
J. RYAN, P. D. COATES, A. F. JOHNSON, J. HYNDS & P. PATRICK (UK)
Simulation of reaction injection moulding in mould cavities of complex geometries 129
C. N. LEKAKOU & S. M. RICHARDSON (UK)
Optimal control of RIM mixing heads 139
P. D. COATES (UK)
Forthcoming meetings 147

Guest Editorial
Polypropylene: the way ahead technically 149
PAOLO GALLI (USA)
PVC/plasticizer compatibility. I: Evaluation 151
LUIS RAMOS-DE VALLE (Mexico) & MARIANNE GILBERT (UK)
PVC/plasticizer compatibility. II: Brabender processing 157
LUIS RAMOS-DE VALLE (Mexico) & MARIANNE GILBERT (UK)
Dependence of wet skid resistance upon molecular structure 163
R. R. RAHALKAR (Canada)
Radiation grafted polypropylene films 177
R. J. ROLANDO & D. L. KRUEGER (USA)
Some chloro and bromo transition metal complexes of 2-(dimethylaminoethyl) ether and a study of their performance as colouring materials for poly(vinyl chloride) . 181
J. R. ALLAN, G. M. BAILLIE, D. L. GERRARD & J. BIRNIE (UK)
The influence of environment on the strength of a ureaformaldehyde-based composite 187
T. ALP, A. A. ALZAYDI & S. SHIHATA (Saudi Arabia)
Short Communication
Blends of linear low density and low density polyethylene 197
SIAVASH HAGHIGHAT & ARTHUR W. BIRLEY (UK)
Book Reviews 201
Forthcoming meetings 203

Number 4

Editor's Comments 205
Recycling papers
Guest Editorial
The motor car and recycling 207
E. M. ROWBOTHAM (UK)
Reclamation and recycling—the motor car and white goods 213
A. P. BIRD (UK)
Polymers and the environment. The solution, not the problem 217
CLAUDE R. FUSSLER (Switzerland)
The recycling of post consumer plastics in Europe 221
R. DERRY (UK)
Recycling plastics from the automobile of the future 229
J. BRASLAW, S. S. LABANA & P. C. KILLGOAR, JR (USA)
Electrical behavior of aluminum glass fiber–polypropylene composite in the X-band 237
S. M. MUSAMEH, M. K. ABDELAZEEZ, M. S. AHMAD, A. M. ZIHLIF (Jordan), E. MARTUSCELLI, G. RAGOSTA & E. SCAFORA (Italy)
The influence of acrylate modifier on the properties of polyamide 6 243
M. BRUMMEL, E. NEUHÄUSL, M. SOVA, M. HOUSKA, L. HOFFMANOVÁ & K. PETRŮ (Czechoslovakia)
Fibre orientation effects on properties of injection moulded glass reinforced and glass reinforced-rubber modified polyamides 251
ANGELO GENNARO (Italy)
Book Reviews 263
Forthcoming meetings 265
